

HEALTH AND SAFETY STATEMENT

There are statutory duties and obligations placed both on employers and employees, by the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974, and subsequent health and safety Legislation. It is our policy to enable, so far as it is reasonably practical, these responsibilities to be carried out at all levels within our organisation, and to ensure that all practicable steps are taken to ensure the health, safety and welfare, of all employees and visitors to any premises under our control.

This statement relates to the health and safety policy of Audax Global Solutions Limited. The policy applies in respect of any person to whom Audax owes a duty of care. It should be read in conjunction with the Health and Safety Policy, which sets out the organisation and the arrangements for the implementation of these principles.

Audax recognises, and fully accepts, its statutory and moral responsibilities to provide the highest standard of health and safety protection for its staff and for other people on or about the premises or sites for which it has responsibility.

Audax regards health and safety as an integral part of the proper management of all the undertakings over which it has control.

Audax is dedicated to ensuring:

- the health, safety and welfare of all our staff and others who work under our control;
- the safety of the general public who use or have access to premises or sites under our control;
- that the way in which we develop our undertaking contributes to the well-being of the community at large;

In order to meet these aims we shall:

- ensure that this policy is brought to the attention of all employees;
- keep up to date with best practice in relation to health and safety and comply with all relevant legislation and authoritative guidance;
- ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, that those who undertake work on our behalf apply the highest standards of health and safety for their employees and the community in general;
- co-operate actively with local authorities, statutory bodies and public services in the interests of public safety and the safeguarding of the environment;
- maintain to a high standard the estate and working practices in respect of all the premises and sites over which we have control;
- give a high priority to health and safety in all our operations;
- develop, implement and monitor health and safety regimes appropriate to our work;
- co-operate with, and monitor, the performance of contractors who work for us;
- provide the necessary resources to implement our policies and keep them up to date;
- consult with, and involve, our staff in matters affecting their health and safety;
- provide the necessary equipment and training for the tasks to be performed;
- where necessary supplement our in-house resources with external resources; and

- enlist specialist support to keep our policies and procedures up to date.

We require the full and active participation of all our employees in order that the principles outlined in this policy statement may be achieved. The statutory duties placed on Audax and all their employees, and providers of services and construction works, are to be regarded as minimum standards.

We aim to achieve best practice in terms of health and safety in all that we do.
